Chambre de l'assurance

Notice of Consultation on the Rule on the Contribution to the Chambre de l'assurance

The Rule on the Contribution enables the Chambre de l'assurance to act in the public interest to:

- Ensure the protection of the public by maintaining discipline and overseeing the professional development and ethical conduct of its members.
- Promote public awareness of the role of representatives and confidence in the financial sector.

This contribution helps ensure the sustainability of public protection mechanisms and the organization's ability to fully carry out its mandate. Maintaining a strong and credible professional oversight framework is essential to public confidence in the profession.

Public consultation:

- The Chambre opened its 2027 Rule on the Contribution for public consultation from August 20, 2026, to September 21, 2026.
- The Chambre invited any interested person to submit comments on the proposed amendments to the Rule on the Contribution.
- Only one person submitted comments, and the Chambre has published them on its website.

Administrative modification:

- An amendment has been made to Section 5 of the Rule to specify the timing of the payment of dues from Chambre members. This amendment is made for clarification purposes to better reflect the reality of its administrative application.

Notice of Approval:

- Following this fair and transparent consultation process, the proposed modifications to the Rule on the Contribution must be approved by the Autorité des marchés financiers, in accordance with the recognition decision of the Chambre as a Self-Regulatory Organization.

The proposed new Rule on the Contribution will come into force on January 1, 2027.
